Opening Night Performance
TUI Studio

"THE FIRST BREEZE OF SUMMER" was initially produced by the Negro Ensemble Company in 1975. It won the 1975 OBIE award for best Off-Broadway play and was nominated for the 1976 TONY award after a successful Broadway run. "THE FIRST BREEZE OF SUMMER" was adapted for nationwide television as part of the Public Broadcasting System's "Theater in America" series.

THE THEATER OF UNIVERSAL IMAGES (TUI) is a multiplex, professional theater based in the Symphony Hall complex. The purpose of TUI is to provide a cadre of performing theater including showcase and touring series. In addition, TUI is a cultural and educational facility where the residents of Newark and its surrounding communities can be entertained and also refine their artistic talents.

THE NEW NEWARK SYMPHONY HALL

NEWARK SYMPHONY HALL, built in 1925, is one of New Jersey's most valuable cultural assets. Its large audience capacity, the beauty of its interior and its superb acoustics make it irreplaceable as a facility for the performance of dance, theater and music.

Newark Symphony Hall is the performance home for the THEATER OF UNIVERSAL IMAGES, THE NEW JERSEY SYMPHONY ORCHESTRA and THE NEW JERSEY STATE OPERA. Other regular performing companies include: THE NEW JERSEY BALLET, the GARDEN STATE BALLET, THE NEWARK BOY'S CHORUS, THE NEWARK COMMUNITY SCHOOL FOR THE ARTS and the EBONY FASHION FAIR.

This magnificent theater has been restored to its original grandeur and progressive steps are continually being taken to improve its facilities and customer services. Most recent of these include:

- NEW—carpet installed in concert hall
- NEW—full service bar
- NEW—directional street signs to Newark Symphony Hall
- NEW—box office improvements
- NEW—1982 audience attendance record
- NEW—Exciting 1983 events

Come and celebrate the excitement with us!
